Barnacre Noggin 12 August 2018

Despite the grey skies, nine Morgans with hoods down and a few tin tops assembled at Barton Grange garden centre. Those who arrived early enough had a drink in the café. Others not in Morgans stayed at the garden centre to browse and shop till it was time for the picnic.

Brian Rawlinson handed out directions for a short social run, taking in Beacon Fell and the small mill village of Calder Vale. Amazingly we all managed to stay in line, which does not happen very often. Arriving at Calder Vale we stopped at the mill car park where Brian informed us this mill makes Arab head dresses! After a brief respite we continued our short journey to Barnacre village hall for our picnic, still with hoods down.

We met up with those that stayed at Barton Grange and others who just attended the picnic. After rearranging the tables we dined, chatted and looked at Brian's photo albums of Morgan trips to France over 20 years ago.

We welcome new member Matthew Redman.

Many thanks to Brian, Ann and Isobel for arranging the day and providing hot drinks, and many thanks to all who attended.

Martin and Vivien Cocks.
