Haighton Manor

For many years the manor was used as a hospital and the beautiful views that you can now enjoy from our garden room helped to lift the spirits of those convalescing.

Now the building has been lovingly transformed into what you see today, a country pub bursting with character and original features with a big old bar at the heart of all things, serving local ales and packed with our collection of whiskies and gins.

We have a mixture of rooms to suit your mood, light and airy or snug and 'beamed' with roaring fires. We even have a beautiful terrace just in case the sun shines.
